Previous Advertising Experience

“We have previously used garden centres [directly] but the whole process and relationship with Access Point is much better.”

Results

“Across 60+ bookings over the last 5 years there are too many to count... but each individual one certainly ‘washes its face’... we’ve had very positive results in terms of brand awareness and business generated.”

“Face to face communication with the general public is always the best and always works, if done in the right manner... over the last 5 years we’ve built up a great relationship with Access Point and always received excellent service from the team. We look forward to working with them for many years.”
