Location & About

JunctionNINE Retail Park

Warrington, WA2 8TW

The population in 2015 was estimated at 207,700, more than double that of 1968 when it became a New Town. Warrington is the largest town in the county of Cheshire. In the 2011 census, the borough of Warrington had 85,100 households with an average age of 38 years which is slightly below the regional and national averages.

JunctionNINE Retail Park is prominent on the A49 Winwick Road, close to junction 9 of the M62 motorway. With a new access road opening directly from the A49 you can shop at your leisure at JunctionNINE retail park, with 963 free parking spaces and disabled bays conveniently situated in the centre of the shopping park giving you easy access to all the great brands such as Currys PC World, Thomson, Dunelm Mill and Pets at Home across 200,000 sqft of retail space.
