Location & About

Barnet Market

The Spires Shopping Centre, Bandstand Off Stapylton Road, Barnet EN5 5XY

On the 23rd August 1199 King John issued the charter for Barnet Market and 820 years later the Market is still in existence.

The day to day operating of the market is managed by Access Point in partnership with The Spires Shopping Centre.

Having been on a temporary site the Market now has a permanent home on the Spires Shopping Centre site and benefits from the shopping centre footfall.

The Market consists of 20 stand spaces and trades every Wednesday and Saturday.

Barnet Market resides in the second largest London borough by population with 331,500 inhabitants, covers an area of 33 sq miles and with 67% of householders being owneroccupiers provides a strong residential local audience.
